

From the Pastor:

In James 1:14-15 we find the mechanics of sin given. “But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed. Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death.”

James 1:15 uses the analogy of conception to birth to full grown maturity to death for the progression of sin once it starts and not rectified by repentance. That progression starts with a wrong desire (lust) of our own which is acted upon (in mind or action)—and thus conceived.

James 1:14 shows that our sin begins when we are “drawn away by [our] own desires and enticed.” Satan and his society may provide the temptations; but, these temptations will have no effect if they do not strike a sympathetic chord in our own minds. However, too often we are “drawn away by our own lusts [KJV] and enticed.”

It is interesting that the word “enticed” is the Greek “deleazo.” It is a term from fishing meaning “to bait or catch by bait,” (Online Bible Greek Lexicon) or, “to lure by the use of bait.” (Danker’s Lexicon) In fishing we use lures; or, we bait a hook. Fish will bite the lure or the baited hook if they deem it appealing.

The temptations in this world cannot lure us to sin unless they appeal to us—our lusts or desires.

Satan nor anyone else can force us to sin. We can’t make fish bite. However, we do try to lure them to bite. This is what Satan does. He seeks to tempt us—lure us—to sin.

But we do not need Satan to tempt us to sin. We can follow the path of selfishness which leads to sin all by ourselves just as Satan did.

No one influenced Lucifer to become motivated by self-seeking. As Ezekiel 28:15 & 17 record, “You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created, till iniquity was found in you... Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor...” Satan became self-concerned and self-exalted from his own motivations that flowed from his own heart.

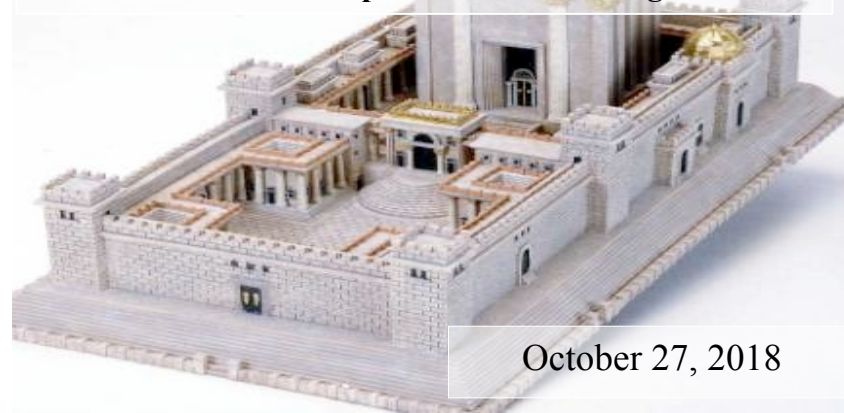

Human beings can become selfish—self-centered—on their own. We do not need someone to lure us into selfishness. However, Satan can lure us into sin easier and more quickly by temptations to satisfying “the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life.” (1 John 2:16)

The progression to death—the wages of sin—begins with our not controlling our own desires. A wrong desire does not become sin unless it is allowed to stay unchecked. If we recognize such a desire—self-seeking or self-exalting— is wrong and reject it—kick it out of our minds—we have not sinned.

Sin is conceived only if we allow those wrong thoughts to remain and take root—give birth to them.
