

From the Pastor

After Jesus told His disciples that they were “the salt of the earth” He then gave a sobering message. This message is contained in Matthew 5:14-16, “You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.”

This is a sobering message when we consider it in the light of 1 Peter 4:17, “For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?”

Our Father is constantly examining our conduct—how we live His ways 24-7-365. We read about this in Psalm 33:18, “Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His mercy.”

We must ask ourselves, “Are we as concerned about our example as God is?” Do we examine our own conduct 24-7-365? Asking God to help us to be aware of our example should be a part of our daily prayer.

Thankfully God is indeed very merciful. In the Psalms alone we read of God’s mercy well over 100 times. God is merciful to us because He understands our very makeup. Psalm 103:14 records, “For He knows [margin records – understands our constitution] our frame; He remembers that we are dust.”

But, we must not take God’s mercy for granted—nor take His mercy as license to live as we please—to do what is right in our own eyes. Further on in Psalm 103 we read in verses 17-18, “But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him, and His righteousness to children’s children, to such as keep His covenant, and to those who remember His commandments to do them.”

God is very merciful to those whom He sees striving to live lives pleasing to Him—to those who are truly seeking to live righteously—to those who really want to let the light of His way of life shine through them.
