

From the Pastor:

James 1:12 reads “Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been proved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.”

The Greek word translated as “temptation” is “peirasmos.” Like many words it has more than one meaning. The first meaning given by Danker’s Lexicon is “an attempt to learn the nature or character of something, a test, a trial.” The second meaning given in Danker’s is “an attempt to make one do something wrong, a temptation or enticement to sin.”

In James 1:12 “peirasmos” can have either meaning. We all can experience trials or tests. Some of those trials or tests can be temptations to sin. However, a trial or test does not always result from a direct temptation to sin. But, we can respond by sin to either type of trial.

A vehicle breaking down at an inopportune time can be a test or a trial. But, of and by itself, such a situation is not a direct temptation to sin though we may respond badly (wrong attitude) and sin as a result.

We will cover verse 14 next time. But, that verse shows that there are temptations that result from being drawn away (enticed) by our own lusts. That lust if yielded to produces sin.

God allows all types of trials, tests and temptations. From those situations He learns about us. As Danker’s first definition states God seeks to “learn the nature or character” we possess through the trials and tests we face.

Please remember: The heart is the seat of conviction, commitment and motivation. Through trials, tests and temptations God learns (by how we respond to those situations) about our commitment to pursuing His righteousness.

In Deuteronomy 32:31 we read about God’s test of Hezekiah. “However, regarding the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, whom they sent to him to inquire about the wonder that was done in the land, God withdrew from him, in order to test him that He might know all that was in his heart.”

David wrote in Psalm 17:3 “You have tested my heart; You have visited me and have found nothing [evil]; I have purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.”

James wrote, “Blessed is the man who endures temptations; for when he has been proved [tested, tried], he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.”

If we remember Romans 8:28 and never stop loving God, we will pass every test.

On a personal note this will be my last personal until after the Feast of Tabernacles. We will be leaving right after Trumpets for the Feast in Rapid City. There is a lot to do before we leave.
